

Dydd Gwener 22 Mawrth

L.I. To polish and publish a modern retelling of Romeo and Juliet

An other dull, Stupid day in Verona's rugby training field, the two rival rugby teams, the Montagues and the Capulets were at it once again in a petty pointless and pathetic tournament. The two best player's from the opposite teams collided into each other and had a massive argument about who was going to win the match. This was another silly fight about who was the best team in all of Verona. Immediately the prince of Verona warned the best players to stop fighting or they weren't aloud to play rugby ever again.

After that day, with more incidents in the club the prince of Verona announced that the tournament was going to start. The tournament was held in the most beautiful stadium it had lovely lights shining like diamonds in the night sky it was also as big as the millenium stadium. The tournament had ended so all of the rugby teams were to come back in the club and receive their awards, each team had one trophy. Shockingly the team who came first was Tybalt's so he went up to the winners stand and he was given his winners trophy. ~~the~~ He smirked at all the other teams and laughed at them. Romeo, Benvolio and Mercutio sneaked into the award ceremony with scrum hats on with no one noticing who they were. They react the party ended were laughing at him. Everyone started to dance with happiness apart for the beautiful girl across the room who was Juliet. Juliet was all alone not even with a smile on her face. She was doing nothing not even dancing. She was kicking the floor with boardiness on her face. Everyone was glancing at their partner and then started to dance with them. Romeo was searching for a person to dance with. He glanced at this beautiful girl and stared with shockness his heart beating excitedly. Instantly Romeo fell in love with her as soon as their eyes were looking at each other. He walked nervously towards her. He went closer and closer and closer until their hands could touch. They fell in love in an instant.

Not long after, the secret wedding day had arrived, Friar Lawrence had married the happy but forbidden couple, Romeo and Juliet later when Romeo was taking a stroll through Verona when suddenly he got ambushed by Tybalt, Juliet's cousin. Furiously Tybalt shouted out, "So you think my victory was hilarious did you?" Romeo replied, "I don't want to fight you Tybalt." Romeo calmly walked away from him. However Romeo's friend Mercutio was lined. Angriily he shouted, "I will fight you, you Capulet monster!" "Come and have a go if you think you're hard enough" Tybalt bravely replied. The two men fought and devastatingly Mercutio fell to his death. As hearing this news Romeo ran back at Tybalt and tackled him with rage and anger. The prince of Verona had heard about this news and banished Romeo from Verona.

Meanwhile, Juliet had ran to Friar Lawrence after hearing something that was life changing news; her parents were trying to force her to marry Paris. Eager to help his friend Friar Lawrence started to think of a scheme to keep the two forbidden lovers together. Unexpected a bright bulb turned on in his head and he had a solution that could possibly work. The solution was to make her fall asleep for 42 hours. Juliet asked Friar Lawrence, "Can you make sure to tell Romeo this plan?" Friar Lawrence replied, "Of course I will." Juliet took the sleeping burger.

Not long after, Lord and Lady Capulet noticed that Juliet had not awake for breakfast that lovely morning. Curiously her parents marched quietly up to Juliet's chamber. To their anxiousness they discovered their delicate dead daughter. They weeped with sorrow in the heart breaking and tragic loss. Immediately they transported their beloved and only child on her final journey to the Capulet family tomb, where Romeo's personal assistant Balthazar was rustling in the bushes. He caught sight of Juliet dead inside her coffin in this awful even. Instantly he got straight in a tour bus and went to Romeo to tell him the tragic news. As soon as Romeo heard about this breath taking news he shouted out, "I am going to see her if she is dead then I will be dead too!" As the same time, Friar Lawrence had sat down with a strange feeling that he should have done something.

After that, Romeo finally arrived at the family tomb where his beautiful wife was laying there looking lifeless. Romeo, crying his eyes out kissed Juliet for the last time. Romeo took his last breath and drank the poison and fainted his death. Moments later Friar Lawrence entered the tomb as he approached Romeo, Juliet awoke and saw Romeo lying dead on the floor and plunged Romeo's dagger into her self. After a while the two were discovered. The two families were grief stricken. The prince of Verona was unsympathetic and blamed the two families declaring, "For never was a story of more woe than that of Juliet and her Romeo."